ANNOUNCEMENTS

Today's prelude, offertory and postlude are compositions from the Baroque period: The prelude and postlude contain the cantus firmus, or hymn tune, in the pedals. This was a compositional convention of the time. This organ music is highly contrapuntal, meaning that there are independent voices instead of melody with accompaniment, the latter being what would have been the style in later centuries.

Summer Sunday Camp for children ages 4-12 will meet immediately following the children's message. Children age 3 and under will have activities in the nursery (Room B-109).
