SOS Campaign: Each year during Lent, Christ Church asks for special offerings in our Sundays of Sharing (SOS) campaign. We use these donations throughout the year to respond financially to crises in the world, from those that are simmering, to those that are boiling over. From natural disaster relief (e.g. Christian Relief Fund for Hurricane Florence), to aiding people in distress (e.g. Inhijambia for its mission in Nicaragua), to changing hearts and minds (e.g. ADL after the Pittsburgh shooting). Your donations are used to fund projects and initiatives by many charities around the world who help to bring the Kingdom of God to Earth. Use the SOS envelope in the pew, click the 'donate' button on Christ Church's website and select SOS, or contact the BWF for more information: bwf@christchurchsummit.org.

“Let's Talk about White Privilege” Christ Church will be hosting a discussion group on Tuesdays from 7-9pm, from March 5th to April 9th. This group provides a judgment-free environment to discuss our spiritual experiences with race. Please contact Donovan Sherman during coffee hour or via email donovan.sherman@gmail.com to sign up or if you have any questions.

Follow Up to “When Tweeting #MeToo Is Not Enough”

Monday, March 25, 7:30 - 9:00pm, Lile Hall

Please join us to speak about what the #MeToo movement has meant to you. All will be asked to protect each other's anonymity and respect each other's right to decide who to tell & when to tell your story. We will talk about how many of us have been confused about whether our personal experience counts - after all, "it could have been so much worse". That almost universal kind of minimization reflects the way our communities have not taken sexual aggression as a serious violation and instrument of control.

Co Facilitators: Sara Mac Donald and Sharon McCombie, LCSW.

If you are interested email Sharon at: sharon.mccombie@gmail.com.
